Market Access for Switches and Similar Fixed Electrical Installations in the United Arab Emirates

Regulatory requirements

As one of the GSO member countries, the United Arab Emirates adopts GSO market access requirements and technical regulations, and must meet the following requirements:

country differences

- 230

Voltage (V)

- 50

Frequency (Hz)

- Arabic

official language

- Type C; Type D; Type G

Plug and socket type

-

Plug and socket form

National standard

Executive standard:

- GSO IEC 60669-1

- GSO IEC 60669-2-1

- GSO IEC 60669-2-2

- GSO IEC 60669-2-3

- GSO IEC 60669-2-6

Certification requirements

Electrical Safety

Certification requirements:

List 2 products must be issued a certificate by a designated agency and registered by GSO and then affixed with the GC mark with a QR code; products must be tested in a qualified testing agency in accordance with regulatory requirements

Certification mark:

Electrical Safety

Certification requirements:

List 2 products must be issued a certificate by a designated agency and registered by GSO and affixed with a GC mark with a QR code; products must be tested in a qualified testing agency in accordance with regulatory requirements; type test + registration + supervision after certification; product Must be tested at a designated testing agency; must be certified by a local representative;

Certification mark: